

The Road to Emmaus

The whole Bible is all about Jesus!

GOD'S STORY
THE TRANSFORMATION FOR ADULT LIFEGROUPS

Luke 24:13-27

February 2, 2020

¹³ Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. ¹⁵ As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; ¹⁶ but they were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷ He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast. ¹⁸ One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?" ¹⁹ "What things?" he asked. "About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. ²⁰ The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; ²¹ but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. ²² In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning ²³ but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. ²⁴ Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus." ²⁵ He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶ Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" ²⁷ And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

CONTENT – EXPLORING GOD'S STORY

Read Luke 24:13-27.

- Ask your group to summarize what you just read. .
- What emotions might the two Emmaus Road disciples have felt as they recounted to Jesus the events surrounding His crucifixion, which took place just days earlier?
- What observations can we make from Jesus' response to these disciples in verse 24-27?
- Why might Jesus have done a broad Bible study with these two disciples, rather than simply revealing His identity to them immediately?
- What does this reveal about the importance of seeing God's Story of redemption in the whole Bible?

THE WHOLE BIBLE IS ALL ABOUT JESUS!

Gospel-Centered Teaching, p. 49-51

Creation. "In the beginning, the all-powerful, personal God created the universe. This God created human being in His image to live joyfully in His presence, in humble submission to His gracious authority. But all of us have rebelled against God and, in consequence, must suffer the punishment of our rebellion: physical death and the wrath of God." From the beginning, God created us to be in relationship with Him. He knew we would need a Savior to restore this relationship. Even in the first days of humanity, God promises to send one who would save us – Jesus.

Anticipation. “Thankfully, God initiated a rescue plan, which began with His choosing the nation of Israel to display His glory in a fallen world. The Bible describes how God acted mightily on Israel’s behalf, rescuing His people from slavery and then giving them His holy law. But God’s people – like all of us – failed to rightly reflect the glory of God.” We will see many saviors come and go through the stories of the prophets, judges, kings, and heroes and heroines of the Old Testament. Each one was a partial deliverer, a foreshadowing of the perfect Deliverer who was still to come.

Manifestation. “Then, in the fullness of time, in the Person of Jesus Christ, God Himself came to renew the world and restore His people. Jesus perfectly obeyed the law given to Israel. Though innocent, He suffered the consequences of human rebellion by His death on a cross. But three days later, God raised Him from the dead.”

Proclamation. “Now the church of Jesus Christ has been commissioned by God to take the news of Christ’s work to the world. Empowered by God’s Spirit, the church calls all people everywhere to repent of sin and to trust in Christ alone for our forgiveness. Repentance and faith restores our relationship with God and results in a life of ongoing transformation.”

Consummation. “The Bible promises that Jesus Christ will return to this earth as the conquering King. Only those who live in repentant faith in Christ will escape God’s judgment and live joyfully in God’s presence for all eternity. God’s message is the same to all of us: repent and believe, before it is too late. Confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, and you will be saved.”

COMMISSION – ENGAGING IN GOD’S STORY

Our LifeGroup is going to take a 30,000 foot view of the high points of Scripture in order to see God’s Story to redeem people from Genesis to Revelation through the person and work of Jesus. In other words, we will see how the whole Bible is all about Jesus. We will look at key stories and passages, beginning in Genesis, and discuss how they point us to Jesus as Restorer, Promised Deliverer, Conquering King, and Champion. We’re going to see how every story echoes His name.

- Will you commit to join us on this journey?

I hope you will join us next week as we learn a simple, but profoundly helpful method for you to H.E.A.R. from God personally every time you open up the Bible.
